

Statutes for office holders

1 Office holder

As office holder counts according to these statutes, each person elected by the Landskap or the board of the Nation, to an office with a by the Landskap decided description, and that is subordinated to curator or other full timer position.

2 Duties of office holders

The office holders shall

- Follow the Nation's statutes, regulations and policies,
- Make sure that eventual keys and codes to the Nation house are not used by unauthorized people,
- Never leave goods and other valuables without supervision or in unlocked storage,
- Attend the Nation's cleaning days,
- Make sure that the successor knows what the position entails,
- Collect experiences and advice in a document and give it to the first curator.