

Nation Scholarships Autumn 2023

Last day of application is December 5th 2023

This is also the last day for those of you who have scholarships to renew them. Application forms and renewal forms are available at the curator's office during office hours. Only one form needs to be submitted even if applying for all scholarships. Applications and renewals can be submitted in the green box in the curator's office or posted to:

Uplands nation
Scholarship Secretaries
S:t Larsgatan 11
753 11 Uppsala

When applying for scholarships, please note the following:
Applicants must be full-time students at Uppsala University or another university or college, depending on what is specified in the requirements. Provide written documentation of any qualifications you want to invoke. Enter all your study results (credits) and clearly indicate the number of semesters of full time or part time university or college studies, as well as any interruptions in your studies. The so-called scholarship ceiling, which regulates that a student can not hold smaller scholarships from the University or the nation to an amount exceeding the ceiling, currently SEK 38.000/ year. (Scholarships covering tuition fees for exchange students do not count toward the ceiling.) Students who have full educational grants for postgraduate studies or an equivalent income (currently SEK 200 000 / year) are not eligible to apply for these scholarships. Application forms not signed, as well as those that are incomplete, illegible or incorrectly completed will not be processed. Application forms from those who do not receive scholarships will be destroyed. Submit the bank account to which funds should be paid if you are awarded a scholarship.

If you have questions, please contact the Scholarship Secretaries at stipendier@uplandsnation.se

Those who are awarded a scholarship will be notified by email. The announced amounts apply per year, unless otherwise stated. Please note that in most cases you need to monitor your scholarship in order to be awarded the annual amount.

The following scholarships are announced for the autumn semester 2023.
