Nation Scholarships Fall 2026
Last day of application is November 17th at 19:00.

Application forms are available at the curator's office during office hours and on the website.

Only one form needs to be submitted even if applying for all scholarships. Applications can be submitted in the green box in the curator's office, in the nation's mailbox or posted to:

Uplands nation
Stipendiesekreterare
S:t Larsgatan 11
753 11 Uppsala

When applying for scholarships, please note the following:

Applicants must be full-time students at Uppsala University or another university or college, depending on what is specified in the requirements. Provide written documentation of any qualifications you want to invoke, including your nation membership. Enter all your study results (credits) and clearly indicate the number of semesters of full time or part time university or college studies, as well as any interruptions in your studies.

The so-called scholarship ceiling, which regulates that a student can not hold smaller scholarships from the University or the nation to an amount exceeding the ceiling, currently SEK 45.000/ year. (Scholarships covering tuition fees for exchange students do not count toward the ceiling.)

Application forms not signed, as well as those that are incomplete, illegible or incorrectly completed will not be processed. Application forms from those who do not receive scholarships will be destroyed. Submit the bank account to which funds should be paid if you are awarded a scholarship.

If you have questions, please contact the Scholarship Secretary at stipendier@uplandsnation.se

Those who are awarded a scholarship will be notified by email. The announced amounts are approximate and apply per year, unless otherwise stated. Please note that in most cases you need to monitor your scholarship in order to be awarded the annual amount.

Please note that the English translation of the scholarship descriptions is unofficial. The following scholarships are announced for the fall semester 2026.
